

The New England Conference Board of Church and Society
&
The New England Chapter of the Methodist Federation
for Social Action

Invite you to our Spring Retreat

Confronting Racism

March 27 from 9 AM to 3 PM

St. Matthews United Methodist Church 435 Central Street, Acton, MA.

Leaders

Keynote Speaker: Kapya Kaoma

is the Project Director at Political Research Associates and author of U.S. Conservatives, African Churches and Homophobia.

Spiritual Director: Gwen White

will lead us through a spiritual process contextualizing racism and social justice.

A soup lunch will be provided.

A $10.00 offering is suggested and appreciated.

RSVP by March 15 to Leigh Dry at leighdry@comcast.net.

Join us for a day of inspiration and peacemaking.

Directions to St. Matthews:

The church is located at 435 Central Street in Acton, just a half-mile south of Rte. 2 at Exit 41 (one exit east of I-495).